From the Piedmont Banner: "Geo. Clarkson, president of the Grand Avenue Bank in St. Louis, who owns the Clarkson Iron mines near Clearwater, has leased to Edward Goitra, a big iron magnate of St. Louis. Mr. Goitra intends to put these mines in operation soon, which will mean a great deal to this community."

Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert M. Knapp, of Shawano, Wisconsin, have been visiting his brother, R. A. Knapp, and wife. Mr. Gilbert Knapp is enthusiastic over our climate and scenery. He says he would rather live here than any other part of the country he has visited; which means much, as he comes from the picturesque hill and lake region of Wisconsin.

Last Monday Mr. Emil Roehrig came down to visit his parents here, and with him were H. C. Chubbuck, Vice-President and General Manager of the Illinois Traction System, Wm. H. Thomson, Jr., and I. Baughman, of St. Louis. The party spent two days hunting, with success, bagging a fine lot of quail. They will return to the city to-morrow.

An automobile visitor to Bismarck Sunday tells us that the road for a mile, between Iron Mountain and Bismarck, this side of the St. Francis river bridge, is strewn with broken bottles, unquestionably placed there with malicious intent. Not an occasional bottle here and there, but scattered all along the way. Pity but the offenders could be apprehended and punished.

Sheriff Blue was called to Des Arc Monday to quarantine several houses wherein are confined parties said to be suffering from small pox. In all there are said to be five cases in the town. Two of the houses quarantined were those of J. W. Cooper and John Seals. The contagion is supposed to have been brought from Piedmont where there have been several cases. The disease is in mild form.

Mrs. E. D. Kitchen, a reader of the REGISTER living at Webb City, Mo., has been kind enough to mail us a copy of last Saturday's Joplin Globe, telling of the Democratic celebration held in that city and vicinity the night before. The parade was five miles long and there were more than a thousand automobiles in line. It is said to have been the greatest demonstration ever held in Southwest Missouri.

The Bank of Arcadia Valley is fitting up a directors' room that promises to be a model of elegance and genuine good taste. The walls have been paneled with oak, on the mission order, and the effect is most pleasing and artistic, in rare and happy consonance with the bank fixtures and the cashier's room. When completed and furnished it will, indeed, be handsome and luxurious—a credit to the institution and its directors.

The remains of Docia West, the seventeen-year-old daughter of Chas. West, of south Ironton, were brought here from Fulton, Mo., last Saturday and interred in the cemetery at Black Mountain church, in Madison county, the following day. The young lady was in attendance on the Missouri School for the deaf and dumb at Fulton, having been a student in that institution for three years. Her death was rather sudden, resulting from the measles. The bereaved family have sympathy in their affliction.

Michael Walter, for many years a resident of Pilot Knob, died at the residence of his daughter, Mary Walter, St. Louis, Thursday, November 16, 1916, at 4:30 o'clock A. M., aged 77 years, 11 months and 22 days. The deceased lived at Pilot Knob for many years, being foreman of the section at that place for a long time. A son and daughter survive him. The remains were brought here Saturday noon and the funeral held from the Convent Chapel that afternoon, interment being made in the K. P. cemetery. May he rest in peace!

We this week printed the Circuit Court docket for the November term, in pamphlet form for distribution among the lawyers, court officials and others interested, by Clerk D. C. Howell. There are 116 cases on the docket, which is set for four days, viz: Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, and Friday, there being no court on Thursday, which is Thanksgiving, and therefore a legal holiday. While the number of cases docketed is rather large there are very few cases that will require much time to dispose of them, many being suits on notes, in all of which judgment will probably be rendered by default.—Reynolds County Outlook.

James C. O'Neal, of Ironton, was instantly killed in an automobile accident, while en route to Ironton, about four o'clock Tuesday afternoon. Mr. O'Neal was returning from a trip to Bismarck, where he had gone with a man by the name of Yeager, who bought a new Ford car while there. Yeager, who was inexperienced, was driving. While endeavoring to climb a hill on "high," the car, in some way, turned turtle, and Mr. O'Neal fell underneath. Life was practically crushed out and death instantaneous. Yeager escaped serious injury. James O'Neal was an Iron county boy, born and reared, and the news of his untimely end will be heard with genuine sorrow. A widow, son and daughter and a number of brothers and a sister survive him. Genial, big-hearted O'Neal! May his long sleep be sweet repose!

From the De Soto Times: "Prof. H. C. Johnson, who for the last several years has been president and owner of the De Soto Business College, has sold the school to Prof. G. W. Moothart of Farmington, who founded the school and from whom Mr. Johnson purchased it. The deal between Mr. Johnson and Mr. Moothart was made several months ago—before the opening of the fall term of the school—but no announcement of it was made until Wednesday when Mr. Johnson severed his connection with the school. Mr. Johnson is leaving to-day (Friday) with his family for Bismarck where they will make their home. He has accepted the position of District Manager for the German Mutual Life Insurance Company and will travel in Southeast Missouri. He has been an energetic and useful citizen during his residence in De Soto and it is with regret that we see him leave this city, but we join his many friends in wishing him success in his new home and new work."

THE VALLEY MANUFACTURING CO.

Methodist Mention.

Sunday was a lovely day, and many took advantage of this fact to try their autos, hence children were absent from Sunday School, and children and grown folks from both Sunday School and church. Nevertheless, the attendance upon both was good. Fort Hill Sunday School is already at work on their Christmas tree. Union will fall into line. It is important that all pupils be present next Sunday so that the Christmas roll may be made out. Those that cannot come ought to send word that they will be on hand the first Sunday in December.

The coming Thanksgiving services are on the minds of the Valley Methodists just now. Thursday, November 30, at the Baptist Church, Rev. V. O. Penley will preach the sermon.

Rev. L. P. Bloodworth, the young folks' friend, will preach at Union Church this (Wednesday), evening, and will continue every evening indefinitely. A cordial invitation is given to the public to attend. Please come and help us. We hope to be able to help you, also.

Annapolis News.

We are having some fine weather. Since I wrote you last the town board has had a meeting and wants the Mayor of Annapolis to get out in the town and arrest some of the boys for being disorderly and drunk and disturbing the peace. Now, Mr. Editor, last Friday a week ago I had a call to Des Arc to do some notarial work, and walked home Saturday night. Sunday morning had a phone message to marry a couple at Obidiah Eldridge's. I walked four miles south through the country, did my work, went to Vulean and boarded train No. 22 for home. I got in the smoker and there were several Annapolis boys in the ladies' car. They disembarked behind me at Annapolis and were apparently sober. There were a number of people at the station Sunday who saw us get off the train who had seen us all get on the cars Saturday, and they concluded we had all been in Poplar Bluff. But they were mistaken. I was not with them.

A couple of the Republican judges of election at Annapolis precinct put up quite a job on Squire Kitchell, the night before and the morning of the election. But the Squire wouldn't stand for it. It would have been a most contemptible outrage on a neighbor. Something may yet come of it. Squire Kitchell was one of the Democratic judges.

Arthur Eldridge and Angeline Hatridge, of near Vulean, were united in marriage at the home of the bridegroom's father, Sunday, November 12, 1916, S. Kitchell, J. P., officiating.

Our school teacher will not allow the students to hurrah for Wilson, and if they do he promises them he will timber them good. But the kids have promised him that on the 4th day of March, next, the day of Wilson's inauguration, that they will charivari him, let it be good or bad.

BULLETIN.

Redmondville Items.

Hurrah for Wilson! November 7 closed one of the greatest campaigns known in history. Well, I am certainly glad we won the great victory. We can think with great pleasure that we shall have four more years in peace and prosperity. We have won the victory after all of the stump-speakers of the Democratic party going over the country saying that Wilson has kept us out of war. He has, for if the other party had been in power when the Mexicans killed a few of our soldiers they would have settled it with powder. While it was much better for us to give up only a few men than to give up millions and millions of them. Mr. Doval, who spoke here before the election, called the speakers of the Democratic party stump-speakers. Well, I don't suppose any one cared, just so their plans were carried out, what they called them. He made a terrible speech here. It was surprising to the Republican candidates that were with him; didn't take him with them any farther than here. They sent him back home, or some where else. They told a Democrat near here to come up to the school house the next night and he wouldn't hear such a speech as he heard at Redmondville. He talked pretty rough about the Democratic party while the Democratic speaker talked nice about the other party. Now, Mr. Doval is a citizen of St. Louis. He says he is a carpenter by trade, but had been handling bricks for fifty cents per day since he had done any carpenter work last, and had left the blood prints of his hands on the brick. Now, my friends, that surely was under some of his Republican administrations. It surely wasn't under Woodrow Wilson's administration.

I am also glad of the victory of Walter L. Hensley, Mr. Gardner, and the county officers.

There was a great roaring among the hills last Friday night a week ago, November 10th, from dynamite and anvils celebrating the election of our great President, Woodrow Wilson. I hope I haven't said anything that will make any body angry.
